

tch) The first result comes from  $V(f) = |f(T) - f(0)| < \infty$ .

The second result can be proved by construction (omitted).

The third result follows from (1) as well as the fact that the difference of two functions of finite variation also has finite variation (a direct result of triangle inequality).

+end<sub>src</sub>

*** Qu